3. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Governments and International Organizations may restrict the transfer or procurement of certain goods and services, vessels, aircraft, technical data, information, materials, and technology in accordance with the Sanctions and Export Control Regulations. For political, military, or social reasons, certain countries, organizations or individuals may be subject to total or partial economic or sectoral embargoes.

As a globally acting enterprise, KoçMedikal aims to take effective and necessary precautions to manage the risks related to the Sanctions and Export Control Regulations.

Products and services of the KoçMedikal may not be traded, directly or indirectly, with Sanctions Targets or the Embargoed Countries. In case of doubt ; or in exceptional situations (e.g., transactions with a party included in the Sectorial Sanctions Identifications List (“SSI”) under certain conditions; transaction with an Embargoed Country, in a sector which is not subject to Sanctions, etc.), the relevant company shall obtain the approval of Legal and Compliance Department before proceeding with the relevant transaction, to ensure where necessary that the proposed transaction does not violate applicable Sanctions or otherwise expose the Koç Group or KoçMedikal to any Sanctions risk.

It is of the utmost importance to KoçMedikal to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to it, including Export Control Regulations and Sanctions, in the countries in which it operates and to fulfil its contractual obligations and commitments. Therefore:

- Unless the necessary arrangements are made, and the required licenses are obtained³ any activity that is subject to Sanctions or any activity that constitutes a violation of applicable Export Control Regulations must be discontinued;
- If, during Due Diligence, an activity that is prohibited, in violation of Sanctions or applicable Export Control Regulations is detected, the relevant process must be stopped immediately and the Legal and Compliance Department must be informed.

Payments and collection of revenues shall be made and recorded in accordance with the laws and regulations of the countries in which KoçMedikal conducts its business activities. KoçMedikal shall not be involved in Laundering of Proceeds of Crime, terrorist financing and the financing of weapons of mass destruction activities. To this end, KoçMedikal shall:

- Know who its Business Partners are;
- Comply with applicable national and international laws, regulations, Code of Ethics and relevant policies;
- Always ensure the accuracy of financial and business records;
- Keep records of all its activities in a secure and proper manner;
- Conduct Due Diligence in accordance with applicable regulations.

Failure to comply with this Policy may result in, but is not limited to, the following:

- Imprisonment of employees (as a result of violation of certain Sanctions);
- Significant financial penalties for both Koç Group, KoçMedikal and employees;
- Adverse public reputation;
- Loss of business
- Termination of contracts;
- Impaired access to international financing;
- Recall of loans;
- Seizure of Koç Group's and KoçMedikal's assets.

³ The licenses must be obtained for at least 10 years unless otherwise stated in the relevant regulations.

4. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

Prior to any engagement with a new Business Partner or customer, business units should conduct, Due Diligence⁴ using a screening tool by taking all necessary commitments in accordance with all the legislation on the protection of personal data in force in the countries where KoçMedikal operates. The purpose of this is to determine potential risks related to Sanctions and Export Control Regulations, to ensure that the counterparty is not a Sanctions Target, and to identify risks such as corruption, bribery laundering of the proceeds of crime and financing of weapons of mass destruction, human rights violations, etc.

Due Diligence should be conducted not only before entering a business relationship, but also on a regular basis during the business relationship. If, at any time, a violation of Sanctions and Export Control Regulations or a warning sign of other compliance risks, (such as Laundering of the Proceeds of Crime, terrorist financing and weapons of mass destruction) is detected by the relevant departments at any time, Legal and Compliance Department must be informed immediately. The Legal and Compliance Department may decide to stop the transaction or conduct Enhanced Due Diligence (“EDD”). Where necessary, they may receive support from external consultants who are competent in the relevant sanction legislation and recognized in their fields. The KoçMedikal CEO is informed by the Legal and Compliance Department about the identified compliance risks and the possible effects of these risks on KoçMedikal, as well as the proposal to establish a business relationship or terminate an existing business relationship, or what precautions can be taken in case the existing business relationship continues. The CEO shall make the decision to establish, continue or terminate the business relationship considering the assessments and recommendations of the relevant reporting. Decisions taken with the approval of the CEO shall be regularly reported to Koç Holding Legal and Compliance Department by the Legal and Compliance Department, and the entire process shall be subject to internal audit, if deemed necessary. In case of doubt, the business units or the compliance officers shall consult the KoçMedikal Legal and Compliance Department.

At the stage of signing a contract with a Business Partner, KoçMedikal shall ensure that the relevant persons are informed about this Policy. Furthermore, KoçMedikal reserves the right to terminate the contract or apply other penalties in the event of a violation of the Policy.

5. INSULATION OF CERTAIN PERSONS FROM PROCEEDINGS

Even in business activities with Embargoed Countries that are approved by the Legal and Compliance Department, in some cases, employees who are U.S. Persons, citizens of European Union member states or the United Kingdom should not be involved.

The term “U.S. Person” includes anyone located in the United States; any U.S. citizen or green card holder (including dual citizens of the U.S. and another country), wherever located; companies incorporated in the U.S. or companies controlled by U.S. companies, even if incorporated outside the U.S. For more information on the isolation of certain individuals, please contact Legal and Compliance Department.

6. REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION

KoçMedikal may receive information requests from the banks or correspondent banks they work with via e-mail, fax or other means regarding certain transactions, counterparties, etc. within the scope of Sanctions and Export Controls. Any employee who receives such a Request for Information (“RFI”), a Sanctions-related RFI should immediately forward it to Legal and Compliance Department for review. Responses to RFIs must be prepared by the Legal and Compliance Department, in consultation with Koç Holding Legal and Compliance Department, if necessary, and must be accurate, complete, and free of misleading information.

⁴ During this work, it is necessary to fulfil disclosure obligations in accordance with all relevant local personal data protection regulations in the countries where the relevant Koç Group company operates, obtain explicit consent and any other necessary commitments from persons acting on behalf of and for the account of the Business Partners.

All relevant internal correspondence must be saved and archived in electronic format, including the necessary evidence and other supporting documents by the Legal and Compliance Department.

7. AUTHORITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

All employees and directors of KoçMedikal are responsible for complying with this Policy, implementing, and supporting the relevant KoçMedikal procedures and controls in accordance with the requirements of this Policy. KoçMedikal also expects and takes necessary steps to ensure that all its employees and Business Partners to the extent applicable, comply with and act in accordance with this Policy.

If there is a discrepancy between the local regulations, applicable in the countries where KoçMedikal operates, and this Policy, the stricter of the two shall prevail, unless such practice is in violation of the relevant local laws and regulations.

If you become aware of any action that you believe to be inconsistent with this Policy, the applicable law or Code of Ethics, you may seek guidance or report this incident to your line manager or Legal and Compliance Department. Alternatively, you may report the incident to KoçMedikal Ethics Hotline via the following link: "koc.com.tr/hotline".

KoçMedikal employees may contact the Legal and Compliance Department for their questions regarding this Policy and its application. Violation of this Policy may result in significant disciplinary actions including dismissal within the scope of collective labor agreement, the Labor Code and other related legislation and KoçMedikal's internal policy and regulations. If this Policy is violated by third parties who are expected to accompany with this Policy, their contracts may be terminated.

8. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Policy has entered into force with the decision of KoçMedikal Board of Directors dated 01.10.2024 and Legal and Compliance Department is responsible for updating the Policy.
